

Claims

1) An anti-trauma surgical plate characterised by the fact that it comprises two lateral series of rings (1) capable of receiving screws (V) alternated with ribbon-like connection plates (1a) and with an intermediate series of balls (2) joined with cylindrical arms (2a).